Describe the mark. The description you provide is the way the mark will be recorded on our database.

(PLEASE SEE ATTACHED DOCUMENT FOR LARGER PRINT DESCRIPTION) The mark is the corporation's LOGO. Its shape is a shield with wings on each side of the upper portion. The center top portion is a blue gradient field containing two crossed bugles which are white in color to represent the sounding of TAPS. Below the bugles is a field of white stars in the shape of a folded American Flag which is what that portion represents. Above the bugles is part of the name of the corporation "ALLEN COUNTY" plus the name of our state "Ohio", write in color and in all upper case letters. Below the field of white stars there is a banner slightly arched shaped, with a gold colored border on the top and bottom. The center of the banner has the remaining portion of the corporation's name, "VETERANS MEMORIAL FOUNDATION" while in color and in upper case letters. The banner extends from the left side of the logo across its entire front to the right side. It has the appearance that it is wrapped around the back side of the image. Below the banner are seven vertical alternating red and white stripes. There are four red and three white stripes. These stripes are representative of the stripes in the flag of the state of Ohio. The image has a gold border surrounding its outer dimensions but inside the wings. Offset inside the gold border there is another gold border surrounding the upper inside portion of the image that extends to the top of the banner. There are other color variations of the LOGO image used when appropriate.

Describe the goods or services used in connection with the mark.
